

During the past 45 years, an average of 11,000 bills were introduced in each Congress and less than 5% became law

